

Glynn, wife of Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor, refuses to go in for politics. Her hobby is charity.

New York.—Mrs. Carrie Allen, Socialist candidate for secretary of state, says Teddy R. should be elected because after 4 years we should be rid of him forever.

Philadelphia.—Hohn Shinnick, 38, hanged self in cell at Central police station.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Gov. Johnson, Progressive candidate for vice president, will address 3 mass meetings tonight.

Springfield, Ill.—Aviator Horace Kearney's engine stopped 100 feet in air. Fell. Unhurt.

Elgin, Ill.—Board of Trade placed butter at 29 cents pound.

Marquette, Mich.—Temperature dropped 50 degrees. Snow.

Marinette, Wis.—Skeleton of man found in shallow grave under John A. Molander residence, constructed 23 years ago. Bones broken. Coroner ordered investigation.

Dalton, Mass.—In honor of Taft's arrival, big interests closed their shops and school children were given half holiday.

Birmingham, Ala.—Aviator Joseph Stevenson leaped from unmanageable biplane at elevation of 50 feet and suffered injuries that may cause death.

London.—Christobel Pankhurst, suffragette, mysteriously disappeared.

New York.—Frank A. Munsey would not discuss rumor that he would have Roosevelt as editor of the New York Press if he is not elected president.

New York.—New York Giants are strong for Woodrow Wilson for president.

Evansville, Ind.—Mrs. Edna Schaffer sued Louis Johnson, county commissioner of Posey county, for $5,000 because he kissed her.

Rome, Ga.—James J. Curtis, blacksmith, fell into his forge. May die.

Saginaw, Mich.—Ella Schoener, 16, suicide. Mother refused to allow her to marry James Gaffney, 20.

Tamico, Mex.—30 persons killed and several buildings destroyed in powder explosion in warehouse here.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Negro shot and killed Frank Foxall, 30, and Philip Lepper, 35, bartenders at Fair Grounds. Miss Myrtle Williamson and Daisy Baker being held. Miss Williamson says shooting resulted from an attempt by a negro to force his attentions on her.

West Baden, Ind.—Private Leo Payne, 23d infantry, U. S. A., despondent. Stabbed himself. Critical condition.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Jos. Lomax, 103, registered yesterday. Said to be oldest voter in state.

Denver, Col.—Two deer hunters found dead, covered with 10 inches of snow, near Cedar Edge, Col.

Denver, Col.—Jim Flynn, Pueblo fireman, has consented to box ten rounds here Oct. 21.

Denver, Col.—Lillian Widdis,